

BUILDING change

a convergence for social justice

OCTOBER 13-15, 2011

Senator John Heinz Regional History Center Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania

MAKE YOUR VOICE HEARD!

Join us as we work to find real solutions to the urgent social, economic, and environmental issues facing our region! This first-of-its-kind gathering of concerned citizens from across Southwestern Pennsylvania will feature hands-on workshops and training sessions, panel discussions, the Building Change Film Festival, 7 Pathways to Change Arts Show, and a keynote speech by renowned social and environmental advocate, Winona LaDuke. Don't miss this chance to converge with up to 1,800 people who are committed to building change in our communities!

Registration is Open!

For information about tickets, tabling, sponsorship, and placing an ad in the Building Change Program Book, contact the Three Rivers Community Foundation at:

(412)243-9250

www.buildingchangewpa.org

trcf@trcfwpa.org

Social justice...for a change.

BUILDING CHANGE

FILM FESTIVAL

Building Change Film Festival

OCTOBER 12-16

Locations: Point Park University Theatre, CAPA (Creative and Performing Arts School), the Hampton Inn (downtown), the Kelly-Strayhorn Theater, and The Andy Warhol Museum.

Come watch and discuss pertinent social justice films such as Your Environmental Road Trip, Out in the Silence, 9500 Liberty, Hip Hop Rev, and Pricele$$.

Get online at www.buildingchangewpa.org to see the full schedule and show times.

Youth Leading Change

Youth Leading Change

OCTOBER 13, 8:00-2:00

350 high school youth from across Southwestern Pennsylvania will fill the Mueller Center at the Heinz History Center to create community service project plans with social change organizations.

See what's involved here:

www.buildingchangewpa.org

Inspiring Tomorrow's Leaders Today!